

JUNE 2016 £4.99

THE WORLD OF INTERIORS

antennae roundup

From functional to fantastical, these fine artists' editions, multiples and products inspire Charlotte Edwards

1 'Split-Rocker' vase, by Jeff Koons, $5,000, Gagosian Gallery. 2 Solar-powered LED lamp, by Olafur Eliasson and Frederick Ottesen, £17 approx, Little Sun. 3 Cast-acrylic 'Rising' sculpture, by Alison Wilding, £3,250, Plinth. 4 Bronze/steel 'Jules et Jim' mice, by Claude Lalanne, £14,177 approx for a pair, Louisa Guinness Gallery. 5 'Untitled' cast of beech-tree root, by Hemali Bhuta, £1,200, Yorkshire Sculpture Park. 6 Kitchenware (from left: 'Breakfast' tray, £16 approx; 'Apples' plate, £26 approx), by Maurizio Cattelan & Pierpaolo Ferrari for Seletti Wears Toiletpaper, Galerie Perrotin. 7 'A Very Long Chat' bookends, by Saint Clair Cemin, $6,500 per pair, Paul Kasmin Gallery Shop. 8 'Full Stop' bean bags, by Fiona Banner, £6,000 each, Frith Street Gallery. All prices include VAT. For suppliers' details see Address Book >